HARD DEBT
TO COLLECTThe Law Having Failed
a Suit in Equity Is Brought.

Under proceedings related below a writ of injunction has been served on David Kawanakoa, Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., and E. A. C. Long, trustee.

Kawanakoa is enjoined against selling or hypothecating 1500 shares of Kapiolani Estate stock standing in his name.

Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., is enjoined against transferring any of Kawanakoa's stock on its books.

Long is enjoined against selling or mortgaging any of six portions of land conveyed to him by Kawanakoa and Kapiolani Estate, Ltd. In the bill this conveyance is alleged to have been fraudulent.

All these prohibitions have force until the final hearing of a case in equity brought to recover a judgment obtained against Kawanakoa by the trustee in bankruptcy of Chas. F. Herrick Carriage Co., Ltd., which it appears has been found uncollectable under the processes of law.

PARTICULARS OF SUIT.

H. G. Middlemitch, trustee in bankruptcy of Chas. F. Herrick Carriage Co., Ltd., brought a creditor's bill in equity against David Kawanakoa, Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., and E. A. C. Long, trustee, based on a judgment for $783.65 against Kawanakoa rendered in the Circuit Court on November 14, 1904.

Writs of execution were returned by the Sheriff of Oahu unsatisfied, also a pluries execution was returned unsatisfied by the High Sheriff of the Territory. It was declared in the various returns that no real or personal property belonging to defendant Kawanakoa could be found whereon to levy.

Now plaintiff sets forth that defendant Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., is a corporation with a capital stock of 3000 shares of the par value of $100 each and that Kawanakoa is the owner of 1500 shares. He alleges that the capital stock is worth $5 and upward a share.

It is further declared that David Kawanakoa, together with J. Kalaniana'ole, on July 12, 1904, transferred by deed to E. A. C. Long, trustee, certain real property, six different portions being described in the bill.

Upon information and belief complainant "charges the fact to be that no consideration passed from the said E. A. C. Long, trustee, to the said David Kawanakoa for the execution of said deed, that the same was voluntary and was made by the said David Kawanakoa to the said E. A. C. Long, trustee, with the intent to hinder, delay and defraud the creditors of him, the said David Kawanakoa, and more particularly your orator, and that the said real estate is held by the said Long in trust for the said Kawanakoa."

Inasmuch as he is without remedy at law, complainant prays that Kawanakoa be cited to answer the complaint. Also, that pending the final hearing Kawanakoa be enjoined from selling or encumbering his Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., shares, and the corporation enjoined from transferring said shares on its books. Also, that Long be enjoined from selling, mortgaging or otherwise disposing of the lands already mentioned.

It is also prayed that a decree be made that Kawanakoa's shares of Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., be sold to satisfy the judgment of complainant; also that the deed to Long be declared null and void and that Kawanakoa's interest in the lands described therein be sold to satisfy the said judgment in the event that the proceeds of the sale of Kapiolani stock prove insufficient.

HAWAIIAN LODGE NO. 21,

DIVISION NO. 1.

J. P. QUINN, Sec'y.

THREE FACTS
For Sick Women
To Consider

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements of the female organs, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, inflammation of the female organs, weakness and displacements, regulating the periods perfectly and overcoming their pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing women for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

Judge Robinson issued a writ of injunction as prayed for under a bond of $900 to be filed by complainant. A. S. Humphreys is attorney for petitioner.

Tests Patience

The Most Patient Honolulu Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times. Nothing spoils a good disposition. Nothing taxes a man's patience. Like any itchesness of the skin. Itching Piles almost drive you crazy. All day it makes you miserable. All night it keeps you awake. Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief. Just the same with Eczema. Can hardly keep from scratching it. You would do so but you know it makes it worse.

Such miseries are daily decreasing. People are learning they can be cured. Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.

Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any itchesness of the skin.

Frank Leiby, of 326 S. Main st., Wilkesbarre, Pa., U. S., says: "It is with much pleasure that I testify to the merits of Doan's Ointment in cases of itching piles. I suffered from that tormenting affliction for the past year. I tried nearly everything that was recommended to me and what I saw advertised, but I could get no relief. Finally I procured Doan's Ointment. After a few applications I was much relieved, and, continuing the treatment, I was soon completely cured. I have felt no signs of that intolerable itching since, and it is four months ago since I used Doan's Ointment. To say that I was delighted is only half expressing my enthusiasm. I recommend this remedy whenever the opportunity is presented. You may publish my statement at any time and I can always be found at 326 S. Main street, and will vouch for the same."

Doan's Ointment for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name DOAN'S, and take no substitute.

PROBATE MATTERS
BEFORE ROBINSON

Judge Robinson admitted the will of Louis Marks to probate and appointed Charles Bon administrator under bond of $10,500. R. W. Breckons appeared for petitioner.

Carlos A. Long, administrator of the estate of R. W. Holt, by his attorney, W. S. Edings, has filed a motion to dismiss the plea in abatement of George Lucas, trustee, James L. Holt, James Robinson Holt and Robert Holt to his bill to construe the will of deceased. His grounds are failure both to file the plea in time and to serve petitioner with a copy.

Tom Leong See, widow of deceased, was appointed administrator of the estate of Yun Wai under a bond of $620. E. M. Watson appeared for petitioner.

Hearing on probate of the will of Thomas Gosland was continued until August 20.

The regular and supplementary reports of Lyle A. Dickey, master, on the accounts of the administrator of the estate of Eliza Wright were approved with the accounts in the main. Interest on a certain legacy was disallowed by the court. A master's fee of $25 was allowed. Henry Holmes, administrator, appeared in person.

DEAD BRICK ENTERPRISE

Post Mortem Investigation of Honolulu Clay Co.

Battle was joined before Judge Robinson yesterday in the controversy over the ill-fated attempt to establish a brick-making industry in Honolulu. C. R. Hemenway, trustee in bankruptcy of Honolulu Clay Co., Ltd., plaintiff, in person and L. J. Warren of Smith & Lewis conducted the attack. E. A. Mott-Smith, D. L. Withington and J. Lightfoot variously represented the defendants, these being the bankrupt corporation, F. J. Lowrey, Frank Huestace, F. J. Amweg, O. L. Sorenson, J. B. Rohrer, J. R. Burns, C. H. Cooke, F. C. Atherton, W. Gehring, F. B. Damon, M. L. Smith, H. L. Kerr, C. G. Ellison, F. L. Litherland, T. McCants Stewart, W. R. Castle Jr. and A. N. Campbell.

The purpose of the suit is to hold certain owners of paid-up stock in the company liable for its debts to a proportion of their respective holdings of stock. The proportion claimed is the difference between the par value of the stock in question and the actual value of the property, real and personal, exchanged for it. It is contended by plaintiff that such property was over-valued, hence that the holders of the stock exchanged therefor are not entitled to the limited liability of stockholders beyond the point where the face value of their shares covers the actual value of the property. In other words, that the excess of capital stock held by them, as gauged by the worth of the property, is to be regarded the same as stock subscribed but not paid for.

It took most of the morning and some of the afternoon sitting for reading of pleadings on both sides. Defendants, both in written and oral pleadings, made a great many admissions, on the strength of which and other technical grounds they had objections sustained to considerable offerings of proof, documentary and oral. Registrar Merriam's evidence was ruled out.

One admission was that the site of the brick works was put into the stock deal as worth $30,000, the whole enterprise being capitalized at $75,000. When objection was made to evidence on the value of the land, Mr. Warren successfully contended for its admissibility. He referred sarcastically to the "many gift horses" in the shape of admissions from the defense and claimed the right to show the real value of the whole outfit in detail. The court having overruled the objection, real estate experts were called by plaintiff.

Cecil Brown had known the land for many years and placed its value at $1500 an acre. The area being 2.75 acres, the valuation by witness would be $4375.

F. S. Dodge, manager of the Bishop estate, valued the land at $7000.

J. H. Schnack, real estate dealer, gave a valuation of $8775 and there was a laugh when the court asked witness if he could not put on some odd cents. Witness admitted that he had sold lots, back toward the mountain from the brickyard, at a higher proportionate value. Questioned about this he explained that his sales were of building lots, while he valued the tract in question as a tract. It was a difference, in other words, between wholesale and retail land valuations.

Judge Robinson brought in the "cussing" topic of the day, raising a circular smile, when he suggested an explanatory rider to one of Mr. Brown's answers, thus:

"You mean the conditions in Nuuanu valley as they are today, without reference to what may happen if that dam gives way."

H. L. Kerr, promoter of the company, was called before adjournment for the day. Objections of defendants to his being questioned about the cost of different items of the plant were sustained.

To speak generally, the defense to the action is partly that, as "a going concern," the whole property at the start of the works, was quite worth the amount for which it was capitalized. A sudden falling off in building activity in Honolulu, however, prevented the company from selling an output large enough to yield a profit. The enterprise therefore came down just "like a thousand of bricks."

All of said property will be sold free from an alleged lien for the sum of Sixty-eight Dollars ($68) claimed by one F. D. Wicke.

All of said property will first be offered as a whole at the upset price of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000). Failing such bid, said property will be offered singly or in lots.
